Numb. 10317.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday May 28, to Tuesday May 31, 1763.

St. James's, May 31.

THE following Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Magiſtrates of the City of Lichfield, having been tranſmitted by Fettiplace Nott, Eſq; their High Steward, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Magiſtrates of the City of Lichfield, beg Leave to expreſs the juſt Senſe which we have of your affectionate Regard for the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms, in delivering them from the heavy Burthen of a conſuming War, by an Honourable and Advantageous Peace; and we humbly hope your Majeſty will condeſcend to accept our dutiful Congratulations on ſo intereſting an Occaſion.

The many ſignal and uninterrupted Succeſſes, which, by the Favour of Divine Providence, have attended your Majeſty's Arms, had left nothing to be wiſhed but a Peace; which, by your Majeſty's wiſe and vigorous Councils, we have now the Happineſs to ſee accompliſhed. And as we are truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's gracious Intentions, in undertaking that great Work, ſo we have all poſſible Reaſon to admire your Firmneſs in carrying it on, and overcoming the many Difficulties contrived to obſtruct it.

Convinced, by Experience, of your Majeſty's tender Concern for your People, we are, with an entire Confidence, aſſured, that under your juſt and excellent Government, we ſhall enjoy the happy Effects of publick Tranquility: In dutiful Return for which great Bleſſings, it ſhall be our conſtant Study, in our humble Sphere, to make your Imperial Crown, with all its Weight of Cares, as eaſy as it is glorious.

Long may your Majeſty live the Defender and Ornament of our Church; may the reſt of your Reign be crowned, if poſſible, with greater Bleſſings and Honours, than thoſe which have hitherto attended it; may you ever be the Refuge of the Diſtreſſed, the ſucceſsful Defender of the juſt Rights of Mankind, and the Arbiter of Europe; and may all your Subjects prove loyal and obedient to your Majeſty's Government, as they are moſt happy and ſecure under your Royal Protection.

Given under the Common Seal of the City, at a Common Hall there held the Twenty fifth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull, having been tranſmitted by Charles Pool, Eſq; their Mayor, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of your Town of Kingſton upon Hull, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the late happy Reeſtabliſhment of Peace.

We cannot but admire the great Moderation and Goodneſs, which, after the Glorious Succeſſes, obtained by the Arms of your Royal Grandfather, and your Majeſty, for ſeveral ſucceſſive Years, induced your Majeſty to agree to put an End to the Calamities of War, and give your Subjects the Bleſſings of Peace, at an Age when Sovereigns are apt to be too much ſwayed by Military Glory.

So much Conſideration for the Eaſe and Happineſs of your People, attended with invincible Steadineſs and Reſolution to oblige your Enemies to yield up to your Majeſty, in abſolute Sovereignty and Dominion, ſuch Parts of your late Glorious Conqueſts, and other extenſive Countries belonging to them, as your Majeſty, in your great Wiſdom, thought neceſſary to ſecure the Continuance of the Peace and Safety of the Trade and Commerce of your Subjects, muſt ever inſpire your grateful People with the moſt ardent Wiſhes for your Majeſty's long Life and Reign over them, in the greateſt Proſperity and Glory.

The very early Proofs, as well as Aſſurances, which your Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed to give, of your Intention to maintain the Rights and Liberties of your People, have excited in us ſo great Confidence in your Majeſty's Goodneſs and firm Adherence to ſuch Principles, that we cannot but look with Abhorrence and Deteſtation upon any Artifices or Attempts to alienate the Minds of your Subjects from the Affection, Duty, and Loyalty, which they juſtly owe to your Majeſty, and which we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ever continue to cheriſh and promote.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty-fourth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty three.

Vienna, May 11. The Court, which is at Laxenbourg, ſet out To-day for Schonbrun to celebrate the Aſcenſion, and the Empreſs Queen's Birth-Day; after which the Court will return to Laxenbourg, where they will continue during the Seaſon of Heron Hunting.
